Swift Signs Agreement with DXC Technology

ASX: SW1

Highlights:

- Swift signs reseller agreement with DXC Connect, a DXC Technology company, to be able to offer Swift's full suite of services to DXC Connect client accounts.
- Agreement expected to contribute to growth in sites, end users and recurring revenue across Swift's target markets

Leading telecommunications and content solutions provider Swift Networks Group Limited (ASX: SW1, "Swift" or "the Company") is excited to announce that it has signed a reseller agreement with DXC Technology (NYSE: DXC), the world's leading independent, end-to-end IT services company's subsidiary, Connect.

Mutually beneficial partnership: DXC Technology is a major international provider of IT solutions with 6,000 private and public sector clients across 70 countries.

This agreement sees Swift become Connect's preferred vendor for the provision of digital entertainment systems, award winning content and services to complement Connect's system integration solutions and add further value to their existing client base.

Enhanced market reach: Swift and Connect will partner to market Swift's solutions to Connect clients which span Swift's targeted market verticals (resources and offshore, aged care, hospitality and student accommodation). Swift will also gain access to new markets where Connect has a strong presence.

Initial projects: Swift anticipates that the agreement will contribute to growth in sites, end users and recurring revenue in the near term, with over 4,000 rooms currently being jointly pursued in the resources and aged care sectors.

Swift Chief Executive Officer, Xavier Kris, said:

"We are thrilled to partner with a global Systems Integrator such as DXC. DXC Connect will significantly increase Swift's reach as they market our award-winning digital entertainment platform and wide range of content options to a large and valuable new audience."

DXC Connect Director, Rob Kohler, said:

"The partnership with Swift will enable DXC to strengthen our market position in key industry verticals through enhanced service offerings."
